ETHNIC STUDIES

ETS-1 Introduction to Ethnic Studies

Prerequisite: None. Description: An introduction to Ethnic Studies offers students an overview of the core theoretical and historical foundations of the discipline, emphasizing comparative and intersectional approaches to the study of race and ethnicity in the United States and across diasporic communities of historically marginalized groups. This introduction to the interdisciplinary field of Ethnic Studies examines the historical and contemporary experiences of diverse communities of color in the United States. Students will explore how race and ethnicity are social constructs that have shaped laws, institutions, and everyday life, with a focus on African American, Native American in the United States, Asian American/Pacific Islander, and Chicana/o/x/Latina/o/x communities. Major topics include the structures of racism, white supremacy, imperialism, and colonialism, and how these systems intersect with factors like class, gender, sexuality, immigration status, and ability. Emphasis is placed on the resistance and social justice movements led by communities of color - from historical struggles for civil rights and sovereignty to contemporary movements such as Black Lives Matter and Indigenous water protectors. By centering anti-racist, decolonial, and liberation frameworks, the course empowers students to critically analyze oppression and articulate strategies for building a more equitable and just society. (Letter grade only)

ETS-3 Introduction to African American Studies

Prerequisite: None. Description: An introduction to African American Studies as an interdisciplinary field rooted in both historical inquiry and contemporary analysis. The course examines the historical and contemporary experiences of African-descended people in the United States within the broader African Diaspora, beginning with precolonial African civilizations and the transatlantic slave trade and tracing the development of African American communities. Major themes include slavery, abolition, Reconstruction, Civil Rights, Black Power, Pan-Africanism, Black Lives Matter, religion and spirituality, Black feminist and Black queer thought, and the arts as a means of survival and political expression. Attention is given to the history of the development of Black Studies and Africana Studies in the 1960s, drawing on frameworks such as Afrocentricity and intersectionality and engaging the work of scholars such as W.E.B. Du Bois, Angela Davis, and Kimberl# Crenshaw to emphasize resistance, liberation, and the global significance of African American thought. Special focus is placed on how African Americans' struggles for freedom have shaped U.S. democracy and global human rights movements. Students connect historical and theoretical knowledge to contemporary issues of justice, equity, and social transformation. (Letter grade only)

HIST-31 Introduction to Chicana and Latina Studies
Prerequisite: None Description: A survey of intersectional and interdisciplinary approaches to introduce students to the range of issues, experiences, and methodologies that form the foundation of Chicana and Latina Studies. By considering the relationship between the creation of "Chicana", "Latina" and "American" identities, students will critically reconsider the borders that constitute the U.S. as a political and cultural formation. The course balances depth and breadth in its study of the variety of perspectives and experiences that come to be associated with U.S. Chicana and Latina peoples. Thus, we will analyze the histories of migration and colonialism associated with predominant U.S. Latina sub-groups, such as Mexican Americans/Chicana people and Puerto Ricans, while also centering considerations of the ways in which broader populations with ties to Central America, South America, and the Caribbean play crucial roles in constituting Latinidad. Topics include the U.S./Mexico border and borderlands; immigration, migration, and diaspora; literary and cultural traditions; music and expressive practices; labor and structural inequality; social movements; Latina urbanism; gender and sexuality; political and economic shifts; inter- and intra-group relations; and indigeneity and Blackness in Latinidad. Sources include a range of social science and humanities scholarship. 54 hours lecture. (Same as ETS-2) (Letter grade only)
